

SEEN ELSEWHERE IN 2006

by Scott Andrew Bartley

This column has covered the journals listed below from 1990 to 1997 in VG, 3 [1998]: 184-186, entitled "Some Recent Periodical Literature." The years 1998 to 2004 were covered in VG, 10 [2005]: 124-127 and 2005 in VG, 11 [2006]: 211-212. The editor hopes to acquaint our readers with articles on Vermont genealogical topics that might not have been seen. The articles are listed chronologically under each journal title. This is a survey of non-Vermont magazines that contain articles on or partially about Vermont topics.

The journals with no specifically relevant Vermont material for 2006 are:

Connecticut Ancestry, v. 49 [2006/7]. [Note: Plus v. 48 #4 missed last time].

The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research Magazine, v. 70 [2006/7], issues #1-3 only.

The Maine Genealogist, v. 28 [2006].

National Genealogical Society Quarterly, v. 94 [2006].

For a notice listing above, the work must be a history of a town (not a brief sketch), abstracts of Vermont records primarily before 1900, or a descendency genealogy of a family that lived in Vermont or came through Vermont. Please submit these to the editor. The hope is to place this list on our website in the future.
